

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID SICKNESS

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease. For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. Get Hood's. No other medicine acts like it.

HOME TALENT MOVIES AT PALACE THIS WEEK

Be sure and attend the matinee at the Palace today as it affords everyone an opportunity of being taken in the moving pictures to be made of the crowds leaving the theatre. These pictures will be a part of the "Home Talent Movies" which will be made this week.

"Won From the Flames" is the title to be given the picture, which will be a farce comedy with many laughs and thrills.

Marie West and Bob Chambers will be the stars of the production assisted by Judge Harrell acting as the late father and Bob Inlock, Bob Garden.

libre, Guy Price and Edgar Payne playing the villains. In addition there will be other people you know, in minor parts.

This is something new in the way of entertainment for moving picture fans, and it is predicted that it will draw unprecedented crowds when shown at the Palace on Wednesday, Dec. 15, and at the Royal on Thursday, Dec. 16.

In photodrama the Palace has a very strong program again this week. Today the World Film corporation presents "Body and Soul," a startlingly realistic drama. Florence Rockwell is cast in the leading role and rises to great heights of dramatic ability in the rendition.

Monday V. L. S. E. presents "The Blindness of Virtue." This is one of the most daring and original photodramas produced because of the wonderful lesson to young girls. Sociologists realize the terrible results brought about by ignorance and every person should see this picture as it illustrates in photography what would be impossible to tell in words.

That the "Palace" is growing each week in popularity, is demonstrated by the crowds attending the shows daily. The writer has seen several of these crowds this week. Particularly was this true of Sunday matinee, again on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights when the management was unable to accommodate those who wished to buy seats to see the show. This illustrates the fact that if you give the public something good in the way of entertainment, they will patronize your show.

War Upon Pain.

Pain is a visitor to every house and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful.

Mervin H. Solister, Berkeley, Cal., writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application I was as good as new."

MONUMENTS UNVEILED LAST SUNDAY

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT ROSE HILL CEMETERY UNDER AUSPICES OF LOCAL CAMP OF WOODMEN.

The unveiling ceremonies held last Sunday afternoon at Rose Hill cemetery by the Woodmen and Woodmen Circle, conveyed to the people of Ardmore a deeper insight into the real meaning and important mission of Woodcraft than they had had before. The graves of deceased members were beautifully decorated with fresh flowers and evergreens. The attendance was large and the ceremonies were solemn and impressive. Each number on the program seemed especially fitting and appropriate to impress the sentiments meant to be conveyed to the hearers. The musical numbers were especially good, with the voices of Misses Grunert, Ernest Grunert and Miss Lorene Poulter. The members of both orders met at the hall at one o'clock in the afternoon where carriages were in waiting for them. The drill teams of both orders were in uniform. The ceremonies were opened by the Circle at the grave of Mrs. Carrie Davidson. The poem was said by Miss Emma Lloyd Smith. Monuments were unveiled at the graves of Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Pauline Hall-Russell, Mrs. Pearl Harrison and Mrs. Arlie E. Scott.

The Woodmen opened their ceremonies at the grave of Reuben Warren. Prof. Richards said the poem for the Woodmen. Monuments at the graves of Reuben Warren, Smith Redmon, Chas. R. Smith, J. T. Gilkey, M. E. Atkins, Ira Wood and Mr. Taylor were unveiled. Dr. J. W. Burns delivered the address.

Lame back may come from overwork, cold settled in the muscles of the back, or from disease. In the two former cases the right remedy is BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be rubbed in thoroughly over the affected part, the relief will be prompt and satisfactory. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Boney's Drug Co.

"THE MIRACLE OF LIFE"

A Mutual Masterpicture, at the Majestic Theatre Tuesday.

Motherhood is a woman's crowning glory, and this picture makes a strong plea in its defense. Its shows in glaring plainness the fallacy of race suicide and tells the story of a young wife, enamored of social pleasures and loathing the thought of coming motherhood, attempts to thwart the law of nature. Then—comes the crowning miracle—but that is the secret the play reveals.

The leading part is assumed by pretty little Margarita Fischer and it is in very capable hands.

Tomorrow (Monday) Wm. Fox presents Marie Corelli's renowned success "Wormwood." It is a picture-play which sets a high standard even when it is considered that it is one of the remarkable productions of the Fox Film Corporation's studios which have given us much noteworthy screen dramas, as "A Fool There Was," "The Clemenceau Case," "Children of the Ghetto," and others, much too numerous and memorable to need special mention. In the first place the story based on Marie Corelli's famous novel and play, is strikingly dramatic and powerful and holds with a real grip from start to finish. Then, too, the acting and mounting of Wormwood is above praise. Seldom in fact has a photoplay fared better at the hands of its producers in this respect than Wormwood. The Pont Neuf bridge at night, and a portion of Notre Dame Cathedral, both marvels of realism are especially worthy of notice. The lighting and photography in both scenes are exquisite examples of how the art of cinematography has progressed since the first halting, flickering pictures were projected on the screen.

Notice—Taxes Due.

The 1915 general taxes are now due and payable at the county treasurer's office. You may pay one-half or all taxes during the months of November and December. If one-half is not paid on January 1, the full amount becomes due and draws 18 per cent penalty per annum. There will be no notices mailed by the treasurer, and it will be your duty to request statement of taxes, which will be promptly furnished. This is in accordance with the new law.

J. WARREN KERRIGAN AT THEATRIUM TOMORROW

The third and final episode in "The New Adventures of Terrence O'Rourke" is the most exciting of the three two-reel installments which were devised to interest photoplay fans during the period between the closing of "The Broken Coin" serial and the opening episode of "Graft."

It is delightful to see Mr. Kerrigan and Miss Wilson working together in "The Road to Paradise." Mr. Kerrigan in artist's costume is superb. With a velvet tam-o'-shanter perched jauntily on his glossy black hair, his great expressive blue eyes smiling out from beneath his bushy black brows, his splendid Roman cast of features and his firm square chin, Mr. Kerrigan presents a picture of masculine beauty rivalling that of a Greek god.

Miss Wilson who plays opposite Mr. Kerrigan, has expressive violet eyes and speaks with a charming southern drawl. She rides a horse with a fiery abandon which immediately endeared her to him.

This picture will be shown at the Theatrium tomorrow.
